BOURTON HALL

Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True...

Tucked away in the beautiful setting of Shakespeare's country with far-reaching views, is the stunning Bourton Hall, an 18th-century manor house boasting grandeur and style.

The entire estate is yours for your special day including the former Catholic Chapel, a characterful setting for saying 'I do'.

The newest addition to the established Country House Weddings collection of dedicated wedding venues, supported by 30 years' experience of making wedding day dreams come true.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

Built for John Shuckburgh in 1791, the original house has had many additions and remodels. Today stands an impressive Italianate-country house with pretty sandstone ashlar, romantic balcony, and the two large three-story canted bays which give the notion of a fairy-tale castle. As soon as you step through the door you are welcomed by the large reception hall with original feature staircase, set underneath two stunning glass cupolas that flood the space with natural light, setting the tone for what is to come as you explore the rest of the house.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

The former Catholic Chapel provides a characterful backdrop for your civil ceremony complete with an ornate carved wood and gold leaf ceiling. Every room of the house is endowed with impressive period features, elaborate ceilings, and striking views.

A secluded rural setting, the stunning country mansion was built in the style of an Italian Villa in the 18th Century, exuding style and grandeur, whilst retaining a homely feel. An exceptional backdrop for a picture-perfect wedding in the countryside.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

Set in 15 acres of grounds including a manicured croquet lawn, parkland, and woodlands, Bourton Hall has expansive views of the rolling Warwickshire countryside out to the Draycote Water beyond. A blissful, unrivalled setting for your wedding day.

Perched on a ridge above the Leam Valley, the main terrace is perfect for sipping cocktails before partaking in croquet on the lawn, or you can venture into the gardens where you will find hidden gems around every turn, including an original Italianate pond.

THE CEREMONY

A unique showstopping former Catholic Chapel, a traditional state room, and an al fresco option for outdoor nuptials, each of the ceremony locations offers its own charm and beauty, allowing you to choose which one best suits your style and wedding vision. The breathtaking Chapel offers a grand ceremony with The Minstrels Gallery ideal for musicians to play from as you make your entrance. The Italian Room is an elegant choice that suits a more intimate affair, with crystal chandelier and double-height sash windows letting in a flood of light. Finally, summer ceremonies can be had under The Portico, for a stunning country house backdrop.

THE CEREMONY

Providing an unforgettable ceremony, the Chapel is entered via the beautiful Italianate Gallery boasting wood panelling and distinctive Bullion windows. With seating for up to 120 guests, the Chapel is a showstopping room with marble panelled walls and high ceilings.

The Italian Room offers seating for 90 guests and has an ornate ceiling, large windows with views over the lawn, neutral décor and contrasting wooden cornices. The adjoining Portico is a superb option for sunnier days.

THE RECEPTION

After your ceremony, your celebrations truly begin, as your reception will see your guests relax in the house and enjoy a cocktail or two. Your wedding breakfast marks the start of emotional speeches and a delicious three-course meal in the Banqueting Hall. Many of your evening reception memories will be made in the Draycote Bar & Disco, from your first dance as newlyweds to those propping up the bar and nodding their heads as the in-house DJ sets the mood. You have exclusive use of the entire venue to enjoy well into the night.

THE RECEPTION

The Banqueting Hall with its eye-catching ornate ceiling seats up to 120 guests for the perfect dining experience, while the Chandelier Bar is fully stocked throughout the day, ensuring that you and your guests are never far from a tasty tippie.

The Draycote Bar & Disco, complete with dancefloor, fully stocked bar, and DJ booth, is the ideal location to dance the night away. It also has space to accommodate live music for those looking to really push the boat out.

THE HISTORY OF BOURTON HALL

The first prominent owner of the Bourton Estate where the Hall currently stands, was Sir Humphrey Stafford of Grafton. Sir Humphrey took part in the War of the Roses on the Yorkist side, fighting with King Richard III in the Battle of Bosworth in 1485. Sir Humphrey, and his brother, Thomas Stafford, joined by Lord Lovell, went on to lead the Stafford and Lovell Rebellion in 1486, hoping to restore the Yorkist Monarch. Unfortunately, the rebellion was quashed, and Sir Humphrey was executed soon after. The estate was temporarily forfeited to King Henry VII, and then returned to the Stafford Family in 1515, before being sold to John Shuckburgh in c1590.

At the end of the 18th Century, John Shuckburgh (d 1837) set about building a plain but substantial three-storied mansion, which has survived as the core of the house that stands today. The house was planned in a similar style to an Italian Villa, with a central wood-carved staircase, lit by cupolas, and two canted bays either side of the main entrance. The Shuckburgh Family remained in residence at Bourton Hall until 1906, when James Frederick Shaw acquired the Hall. Shaw commissioned Charles Armstrong of Warwick to renovate the house, further adorning it with Italianate features, such as the exterior urn-capped balustrade and the substantial Roman Catholic Chapel that we see today. The house ceased to be a private residence in 1942, transitioning into a rest home for Jesuit Priests, and has been a school, grain store, and office space over the years. Today, Bourton Hall is owned by Country House Wedding Ltd, and forms the perfect backdrop for wedding day dreams to come true.
