Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True

HOLMEWOOD HALL

Making Wedding Day Dreams Come True...

Set in 10 acres of picturesque grounds, offering character and style at every turn, Holmewood Hall is a stunning 18th-century Tudor-style manor available exclusively to you, providing the perfect backdrop for your dream wedding.

With Personal Wedding Managers to guide you and a dedicated team of chefs to create your bespoke menu, the team at Country House Weddings are backed by over 30 years of experience in making wedding dreams come true.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

With a wealth of characterful features, Holmewood Hall can be found in the rolling countryside of Cambridgeshire. The impressive manor house radiates beauty all year round, retaining many of the period features added in 1873 including the Jacobean-style great hall and staircase, and the ornate Gold Room. The manicured grounds with lake and fountain complete what is one of Cambridgeshire's most beautiful country estates.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

A wealth of character and period features around every turn, the house is fashioned from local red brick and sandstone in a Tudor Gothic style. A striking and captivating backdrop for your wedding day.

Guests are free to explore the glittering lake with its flowing fountain, mature woodland and manicured lawns and gardens. This stunning landscape truly sets the scene for your elegant wedding.

THE HOUSE & GROUNDS

Conveniently located just 8 miles south of Peterborough and less than 10 minutes from the A1(M), the historic Hall is surrounded by far-reaching parkland. A wonderful retreat for you and your guests.

The beautifully manicured gardens are a lovely complement to the property and provide ample photo opportunities, as guests play croquet on the lawn, visit the outside bar or stand in awe of the striking architecture around every corner.

THE CEREMONY

Holmewood Hall has two magical ceremony options, the showstopping Gold Room and the picturesque Bandstand, both of which exude their own charm and beauty. Make an entrance to remember in the Gold Room with its 50-foot-long aisle and ornate 18-carat-gold leaf ceiling. This stunning room has its original period fireplace and is blessed with huge stained-glass windows which flood the room with natural light. While on sunnier days, the Bandstand is an idyllic outside ceremony option, with the house acting as a stunning backdrop as you are enveloped by the quiet Cambridgeshire countryside.

THE CEREMONY

With seating for up to 77 guests, the Gold Room provides an unforgettable ceremony. Such an elegant room, it boasts views across the lawn and is befitting of an intimate wedding as well as larger affair.

Go al fresco with a Bandstand ceremony, nestled amongst the beautiful grounds and with the red brick of the house offering a complementary backdrop. Your guests can watch from the lawn as you say 'I do' on a summer's day.

THE RECEPTION

After your ceremony, your celebrations truly begin, as your reception will see your guests relax in the house and enjoy a cocktail or two. Your wedding breakfast marks the start of emotional speeches and a delicious three-course meal in the Dining Room. Many of your evening reception memories will be made in the Vault Bar & Disco, from your first dance as newlyweds to those propping up the bar and nodding their heads as the in-house DJ sets the mood. You have exclusive use of the entire venue to enjoy well into the night.

THE RECEPTION

The Dining Room can seat up to 80 guests for the perfect culinary experience, while the Champagne and Garden Bars are fully stocked throughout the day, ensuring that you and your guests are never far from a tasty tipple.

The Vault Bar & Disco provides an opportunity for guests to unwind and get into the party spirit. For those looking to enjoy the ambience of the evening, the Library provides a relaxing alternative. In the summer, the outside Terrace Bar is a popular spot.

THE HISTORY OF HOLMEWOOD HALL

Holmewood Hall's history can be traced all the way back to 1611 when James I sold the manor of Glutton cum Holme to Sir Richard Cotton of neighbouring Connington Castle. It was during this period that the first house on the site was built as the area became suitable for agriculture due to ongoing draining of the fens.

The manor was sold to the Cotton family in 1749, before being passed down to its arguably most influential owner; William Wells. The Wells, who were a distinguished family of long established shipbuilders, set about building a new, much grander, second house, some of the windows of which are claimed to survive on the North aspect of the hall today.

The present-day Hall was commissioned by William Wells in 1873, who appointed a Scottish architect, William Young, to alter and extend the house in a Victorian Gothic style. It was during this period that several notable additions were made including the Jacobean style great hall and staircase, the stunning gold room and the quirky gatehouse which housed the game larder. Following Sir William Wells' death in 1889, the house changed hands several times before a dramatic change was to fall upon Holmewood Hall during the WW2. It was chosen by the US office of Strategic Services as an ideal site to help train and equip resistance fighters in occupied Europe.

The next owner of note for Holmewood Hall was British Sugar who bought the house and estate to use as a seed and machinery trial headquarters, and then later as a conference centre. In 2018, the newest chapter began for Holmewood Hall when it was purchased by Country House Weddings and renovated in to one of the UK's most premium wedding venues.

COUNTRY HOUSE WEDDINGS - OUR VENUES

Founded in 1988, Country House Weddings is the longest established group of wedding venues in the UK.

In 1995 our flagship venue, Leez Priory, became the UK's very first licenced wedding venue. Family owned and managed to this day, we have taken great care in selecting our six stunning country houses for their beauty and their suitability as exclusive wedding venues. What's more, weddings are simply all we do.

Each venue is used purely to hold one wedding per day allowing our couples to enjoy a real tailor-made wedding experience. Our venues each have their own full-time team of staff and managers that are highly trained and dedicated entirely to delivering dream weddings for our couples.

THE HAPPY COUPLES...

Danielle & Martyn

From the moment we set eyes on Holmewood Hall, we fell in love with it and knew it would be perfect for our wedding day. I cannot thank all of the staff enough, especially Ann who helped make our day perfect. We really could not have asked for anything more from a Wedding Manager. Ann really went above and beyond during the planning and on the day, helping to make our bespoke cocktails and I am sure she will remember my little last minute requirement before the ceremony? Everything from the food and drink to the grounds and house was just perfect. I don't think we ever dreamed we would have such an amazing wedding venue that created special memories we will treasure.

Rachel & Graham

We recently held our wedding at Holmewood Hall and Tracey Fowler, our Wedding Planner, was an absolute star before, during and after the wedding itself and is an absolute credit to Holmewood Hall. Nothing was too much trouble for Tracey and her Team and the way they looked after us and our guests was impeccable. Michaela, the Head Waiter at our wedding breakfast, was so kind and attentive to my husband and I throughout. The venue itself is absolutely beautiful and to be honest, we have lost count of all the compliments we received from our guests during the day and after. We would like to thank you all for helping make our wedding day a truly wonderful event!

Leanne & Robert

We got married at Holmewood Hall on Valentine's day and what a beautiful venue. I can't thank all the staff enough for everything they have done. They really made sure I had everything I needed and also my guest and all the staff were very polite. The food was amazing and all rooms are just stunning. All my guest commented on how beautiful the whole place was. Thank you everyone at Holmewood Hall.

Courtney & Kieran

Fabulous location, Tracy was the organiser for our sons wedding and everything was run with military precision. Can not recommend the venue highly enough, it's newly refurbished and has places to sit and talk away from the main dance floor. Bar prices are sensible too. The wedding room (Gold room) is stunning with full height windows looking out on to the croquet lawn. Food was superb, probably the best event catering I have ever experienced and staff were amazing too. Beautiful bedrooms add to the experience but overall we could not have been more impressed.

Sophie & Jack

Thank you so much to every single member of staff at Holmewood Hall for making our day perfect in every way. The venue was beautiful, the food was incredible, nothing was too much trouble, and every face was smiling all day long. Giulia, our Personal Wedding Manager, was absolutely out of this world. She thought of everything, didn't miss a thing, and made sure everyone loved every second. We can't thank her enough for making our day a dream. If you're looking for a wedding venue, don't waste your time anywhere else, just book here, you won't regret it. Thank you all again so, so much for helping make our dream come true x

Lindsey & Shaun

We had our wedding here in December 2019. I cannot even begin to express how perfect our day was! We are so blessed to have had the Holmewood family looking after us from the beginning to the end. We were truly treated like royalty on our perfect day, not only the stunning house and views but the staff, from Tracey our wedding planner (who we cannot thank enough) to all the serving staff, cleaners and chefs they are all super professional and go above and beyond to ensure you are as relaxed as possible on your day. The small personal touches on the day for example a selection from our wedding cake awaiting us when we retired to our room, Tracey always ensuring we had a drink in our hands and that we were happy every step of the way!
